Kalön Women™ welcomes editorial submissions from freelance writers. We are looking for new, unpublished, first-person, non-fiction material that is for or about women over forty. It can help you sell your information, products, services or other intellectual endeavors (such as workshops, seminars, and the like). Having your submissions appear on our site can give you greater visibility, credibility and help you build your own promotional lists and maximize your exposure both online and offline.

Publishers and visitors interested in publishing submissions by the authors listed with Kalön Women must contact the author directly. Unless withheld, you will find contact information in the Signature File (resource box listed below the article). Authors and writers are invited to submit their articles, short stories, poetry, art to our libraries and our publications. Please read the submission guidelines listed below before submitting any content for inclusion.

Artwork: For each issue of Kalön Women, our front page will house a piece of artwork. We are currently seeking artists of any medium who feel that their original work exemplifies women. We do not pay for cover page art. If your artwork is selected, however, we will do a short bio on you. Please add signature and copyright to graphic before submitting. When submitting artwork, please send in a GIF, JPEG or high resolution PDF.

Include with each submission: Contact information (name, address, phone, e-mail, fax) – short bio and byline

If we cannot discern from your submission which area is most suitable, your submission stands a good chance of not being accepted.

Article/Short Story/Poetry Format: NO CAPS ON ANY TITLES, POEMS, SHORT STORIES OR ARTICLES. Submit work in a text only form with no formatting. This can be done in word or notepad and saved as text only, or any other text only editor. Keep in mind that anything other than plain text may take longer to review and post simply because we receive dozens of submissions weekly and priority is given to those in plain text with no formatting. Supplemental materials such as graphs and charts are encouraged as a link back to the origin (not as an attachment).

How to Submit: Submissions should be sent via email to editor@kalonwomen.com in the BODY of the email message. Unless requested by us, we will not accept submissions as attachments to any email message. The subject line should say "Submission for _____" and refer to where you would like to see your submission appear.

Author Contact Information: Please include your contact information with your submission. This includes your name, company name (where applicable), your address, website URL (LIMIT OF 2 LINKS) and email address. The only contact information we publish online and in our newsletter is the information you provide for the resource box. If you do not wish to have your email address published, do not include it in your resource box. If you do not want to be contacted by Kalön Women™, please do not submit content to our sites.

Copyright Information: We only accept submissions written by the author or copyright holder. Kalön Women™ adheres to all local, national and international copyright laws. By submitting to one of our sites and/or publications you are granting permission for its use on the website in our resource library, in our member resources area and/or in our online magazine and newsletters.
